

GIRLS WHO MEAN BUSINESS 2018 AGENDA

The Girls Who Mean Business Summit benefits junior and senior girls from various low-income schools in the City of Richmond. The conference is designed to inspire young ladies to think entrepreneurially and pursue their dreams in becoming leaders in business. The girls are introduced to successful women leaders in business who gives them a better understanding of business. The students chosen to participate are selected on their interest in business.

9:00 am Attendee Check - In

Continental Breakfast Coffee, Tea, Water, Pastries

9:30 am Welcome & Opening – YOU: A Masterpiece || Claiborne Robertson Room

Introduction of Emcee – MBL

Emcee Opening and Morning Session Speaker Introduction

Dr. Faith Wilkerson, Owner UnlockingRVA.com

10:00 am Creating the Masterpiece In You – Vision Board Experience

Develop a vision board, share your dreams and set goals.

Rita Ricks, CEO Speak to Your Spirit

11:45 pm Lunch

12: 15pm Keynote Introduction – Wells Fargo

Penny McPherson, Vice President, Senior Community Development

Keynote Speaker – “Getting Real With Life”

Captain Deshauna Barber Miss USA 2016 | Army Officer | Motivational Speaker

1:00 pm Afternoon Session – Powerhouse Panel -Because of Them We Can

African-American women that have paved the way for our youth...those that have opened doors for others.

- The Honorable Jennifer McClellan, Virginia State Senator 9th District
- Dr. Shantelle Brown, Pharmacist/ Entrepreneur (The CEO & President, Hope Pharmacy)
- Brittany Rawlinson, Attorney/Entrepreneur (CEO & President The Rawlinson Law Group)
- Freda Thornton, Franchise Owner/Entrepreneur (& President FWL & Sons, Inc. - owns & operates 5 McDonalds locations)

2:00 pm End of the Girls Summit